

VIANEN – FEBRUARY, 2022

Cees de Jong new CEO CONTACTCENTER4ALL

Contact center software company CONTACTCENTER4ALL appoints Cees de Jong as its new CEO. Cees succeeds Marcel Reuvers, former CEO and co-founder of CONTACTCENTER4ALL. Years of experience in Telecom and fulfilling various international management positions at Detron, Vancis, Atos, and KPN, among others, make Cees the right person to further expand CC4ALL's global growth and professionalization.

CONTACTCENTER4ALL is a Dutch software company that develops native contact center software for and is certified by Microsoft. The company has taken its first international steps on the market with CC4Skype and now has a strong position in the market, especially with CC4Teams. CONTACTCENTER4ALL is known for its extensive functionalities and ease of use and is currently experiencing strong growth. Cees will add his expertise to optimally respond to the international developments of hybrid work solutions from the cloud and accelerate growth.

"With Cees de Jong, we have acquired a lot of knowledge and experience, someone who can further accelerate our international growth and continue to professionalize the organization and guide it in the right direction."

Marcel Reuvers, former CEO, and co-founder

"Strengthening and further expanding CONTACTCENTER4ALL's market position is a wonderful challenge that I am pleased to take on. With the latest state-of-the-art software from CC4Teams, which will soon receive the 1st release, CONTACTCENTER4ALL has a strong portfolio for the future."

Cees de Jong, CEO

Cees will be responsible for the management of CONTACTCENTER4ALL. Marcel will stay on as a board member and will be involved in strategy and external relations.
